Equality & Diversity Policy

Statement of Intent

The Club believes that every member of the club is of equal value and that individuals are entitled to be treated with dignity, respect and should treat others the same way.

The Club intends that its policies and procedures should actively promote positive attitudes, good relations and mutual respect between all groups who are different from each other.

The Club will ensure policies and procedures help to foster a supportive and inclusive environment where our staff can reach their full potential without prejudice and discrimination.

The Club will ensure equality of opportunity in all aspects of employment including recruitment, promotion and continuing professional development.

We believe everyone should have the opportunity to get involved in golf at all levels and in all roles.

Through this Policy Doncaster Town Moor Golf Club (DTMGC) will:

- Develop golf in ways which welcome differences and are accepting of diversity, equality and inclusion.

Any positive action will be carried out in accordance with the law and not to the detriment of any other group.

Legal Requirements.

The rights of our staff and service users with regards to discrimination are protected by anti-discrimination legislation. By adopting this Policy, we accept our responsibility to ensure that discrimination does not take place and that everyone is treated fairly and equally.

The commitments of DTMGC, outlined within this Policy are in line with the Equality Act 2010, Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, and Protection from Harassment Act 1997, the Employment Act 2002, Part Time Workers (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2000, Fixed Term Employees (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2002 and the Human Rights Act 1998.

The Equality Act 2010 provides protection from discrimination to certain “Protected Characteristics”, namely:

- Age
- Disability
- Sex
- Sexual Orientation
- Race
- Religion or Belief
- Marriage and Civil Partnership
- Gender Reassignment
- Pregnancy and Maternity

Explanation

Discrimination can take many guises including verbal, physical and online conduct. It may not always be obvious to the perpetrator or intended and it is therefore necessary for people to be aware of different types of discrimination and the impact their actions have on others.

- Direct Discrimination is where someone is treated less favourably than another person because of a Protected Characteristic.
- Indirect Discrimination occurs when the effect of certain provisions, criteria, or practices (PCP's) imposed by an organisation has an adverse impact disproportionately on a certain group and cannot be justified.
- In relation to the Protected Characteristics of disability, unfavourable treatment which is because of something arising in consequence of someone's disability (e.g. the inability to do certain tasks) is also unlawful unless it can be appropriately justified.
- Harassment includes sexual harassment and other unwanted conduct related to a Personal Characteristic which has the purpose or effect of violating someone's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for the individual.
- Victimisation is where someone is treated unfavourably because they are known, or suspected to have done, or intend to do, one of certain protected acts, such as bringing discrimination proceedings, making allegations or giving evidence in relation to such things.
- We consider bullying behaviour to include behaviour which is offensive, intimidating, malicious, insulting or an abuse of power through means intended to undermine, humiliate, denigrate, or injure and can include references or inferences to Protected Characteristics.
